> Your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. Verification is a process to confirm the accuracy the information you provided on the FAFSA. Verification selection may be random or may be required if your FAFSA data was incomplete, estimated or inconsistent. If you are selected for verification, the process must be completed before your financial aid package will be created. The Office of Financial Aid will compare the requested information against the information reported on the FAFSA, which may result in changes to your FAFSA.
> Please submit all requested documents within 30 days.

A. Parent(s) in the household: If your legal parents are married to each other, or are not married to each other and live together, you should report information about both of them. (Your legal parents are your biological or adoptive parents, or your parents as determined by the state—for example, if the parent is listed on your birth certificate.) More information is available at www.studentaid.ed.gov/sites/default/files/who-is-my-parent.png .
