

THE CAMPUS COUNTDOWN

Crusading Through College: Essential Tips for New Madonna University Students

Dear Crusaders,

Welcome to another week of The Campus Countdown! In this edition, we're focusing on academic preparedness. Starting your university journey can be overwhelming, but with the right preparation, you'll be ready to tackle any challenge. We'll cover some essential tips for making the most of your resources, meeting with your success coach, and utilizing the many other academic resources available for you. Setting the foundation for your academic success at Madonna University is necessary for a bright future!

Office of Undergraduate Admissions

Campus Resources

In each edition of The Campus Countdown, we'll highlight essential resources that will enhance your college experience and ensure you know all the resources you need to succeed. In this edition, we will be highlighting the CDRC or Counseling and Disability Resource Center! The CDRC is where they make reasonable accommodations to work to provide access to educational opportunities, an environment that fosters a better understanding of all learning styles, and opportunities for social, leadership, and self-advocacy development at Madonna University.

The CDRC specifically helps with the transition from high school 504/IEP plans to ones in college as well as any other additional classroom accommodations that you might need during your time as a student. The CDRC also offers counseling and additional resources through Ulliance. For any questions that you may have so far about your next steps or need anything throughout the summer, reach out to the Office of Admissions! We will make sure you get connected to the CDRC to ensure you are successful during your time at Madonna.

Student Spotlights

In our Student Spotlights section, you'll hear from current students and recent graduates who share their personal experiences, tips, and advice. These stories are meant to inspire and guide you as you begin your own journey at Madonna University. Learn from their successes, challenges, and unique perspectives to make the most of your time here.

Message from a current student:

"Balancing coursework and free time can be tricky, but here's what works for me. I prioritize tasks by listing assignments and deadlines each week. I also use techniques like flashcards, teaching concepts to friends, and quizzing myself as ways to study in a more creative way. For balance, I stick to a schedule: mornings for study, evenings for downtime. My favorite study spots on campus would be by the library in the student art gallery- happy studying!" -Alex, Senior, Business Administration

FAQs

How do I register for classes?

For Freshman students, you will register for your Fall semester during New Student Orientation. After that, you will be responsible for registering for classes with your success coach. Transfer students can register now for the fall and should reach out to their success coach as soon as possible.
